Confidently send your newest technicians into the field for any job

Try Smart Access Anywhere (SAA) remote coaching application for any VIAVI OTDRs

The Smart Access Anywhere application is the test support solution when it is time to send inexperienced staff in the field. Its remote access capability allows getting full control of a VIAVI T–BERD/MTS or a SmartOTDR test instrument using a smartphone, a tablet or a laptop.

The life-time license extends the standard connectivity capability of the VIAVI test instrument by adding the use of 3G/4G smartphone via internet sharing, to Ethernet cable and WiFi.

Top Features:

- Allow taking control of the remote test instrument and troubleshooting field technician's issue immediately
- Allow remote coaching from anywhere
- Provide on-line results analysis to prevent additional truck rolls to fix problems
- Enable to upload test results from the field to analyze and generate reports in office

The lead engineer can view the user interface of a new tech's OTDR remotely from his office chair
